Take Gift Lift Packages to Local YMCA

The Torrance YMCA has been designated as a collection point for the Gift Lift of 1952, sponsored by the Los Angeles Jr. Chamber of Commerce, according to Stan Roberts, executive secretary.

Here are some of the things G.I. Joe wants for Christmas: ball point pens, mechanical pencils, wallets, lighters, handkerchiefs, toilet soap, sewing kits, playing cards, pen knives, writing pads and envelopes, heavy duty candles, various non-perishable food items, Roberts stated.

People giving Gifts are asked to wrap them with heavy wrapping paper on outside—Christmas wrapping on inside is preferred. Donors can place a card in the package with their name and address so the fighting men will know who is the Santa Claus.

November 30 is the closing date for the Gift Lift. Packages should be left at the YMCA, 2080 Washington Ave.

LLOYD DENNEE SAYS

"IT'S OVER"

The election is over—the anxiety is gone—the right to vote as free people has been exercised again — and the people have made a choice between two great men.

We should all be proud of the number of votes that were cast. We must continue to perform collectively with the same sincerity and faith that was so apparent with every ballot that was cast Tuesday.

We are thankful that this is a nation of varied religious faiths. With sincerity and faith our America will continue as it has since its inception.

We should always think of an election as being the expression of one party . . . the "American Party" . . . represented by two candidates, we will call them the Democrats and Republicans. In either case the winner (with our help) must strive to improve our strength spiritually and materially.

My company and its employees pledge their continued cooperation as Americans to do their small part in assisting the efforts that might create benefits to all Americans.
